

ADMITTS HE IS A PERJURER.

Mr. Cockrell (Dem., Tenn.), chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, offered a resolution, which was adopted, providing that the doorkeepers of the Senate be notified to admit no one to the Senate floor after 10 o'clock.

The Vice-President then directed a roll-call of Senators, considerably more than a quorum.

The Senate then took a recess until 12:30 P. M., and the Senators again moved about the Chamber, exchanging greetings.

The hand-shakers were not confined to members of the respective parties, but Senators moved from side to side, with little evidence of the political conflicts and changes which have marked the session.

The Senators received floral tributes which gave a touch of color to the black and white of the Senate.

At 1:30 P. M. the Senate took a further recess until 2:30 P. M.

In the House the roll call developed the presence of 215 members, forty-seven more than a quorum. The Speaker announced the fact that several members elected to fill vacancies occasioned by death or resignation were present, and George P. Harrison, of Alabama; John A. Little, of Arkansas; William L. Henry, of California; and William L. Henry, of Maryland, were sworn in.

Mr. Griffin was sworn in. The Speaker also announced the resignation of Amos J. Chase, of New York, who resigned to accept an appointment as Subway Commissioner of New York.

Upon motion of Mr. Wilson (Dem., Va.) a committee consisting of himself, Mr. Holman and Mr. Beckner was appointed to join a similar committee from the Senate and inform the President that a quorum of both houses was present.

Mr. Wilson was ready to receive any communication desired to bring the hour of meeting, etc., were adopted, and the report of the committee was read, and at 12:30 the House took a recess until 1 P. M. to await the President's message.

THE HAVEMEYERS SPEECHLESS

They Refuse to Comment Upon the President's Message.

Secretary Searles Excited, but Declines to Talk.

The President's message was in the hands of the Sugar Trust officials long before its publication in the afternoon papers.

When an "Evening World" reporter saw the secretary, John E. Searles, at the office, 111 Wall street, the latter was visibly excited. He had just come from a conference with Theodore A. and H. O. Havemeyer.

"You must see Mr. Havemeyer—either of them will do," he said. "I have nothing to say concerning the President's message."

Mr. H. O. Havemeyer was seen immediately afterwards he said:

"See my brother, Theodore. I cannot talk about it."

When Theodore A. Havemeyer was seen he said:

"I have nothing to say. I will talk to my brother, H. O. He will talk to you."

Both Havemeyers were seen together half an hour later, when they were approached by a reporter.

"I have an important business meeting to attend," said Theodore. "I will see you later."

Isaac Seligman, of the firm of J. & W. Seligman & Co., brokers, 2 Broad street, was also seen.

"President Cleveland's attitude on the drain on our gold reserve, its cause and its remedy, is perfectly sound. His remarks on the lack of elasticity in our currency circulation and its frequent concentration in financial circles, when it is most needed in other parts of the country, is also sound."

"I believe that Congress should promptly authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a 2 per cent. bond. This would relieve the drain on our gold reserve and make good our credit."

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

President Cleveland Leaves Woodley for the Executive Mansion.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Cleveland came to the White House from Woodley at 10 o'clock this morning. It was the first time he had made the city in two weeks past.

He came alone and was met by Mr. Thurber when he entered. The President looked very well, considering the severe illness he has suffered from, and the only outward reflection of his ailment was the pronounced limp which characterized his walk from the carriage into the house.

Probably because his coming had not been generally expected, there were very few callers at the White House this morning, the only one of note being Representative Charles D. Hughes, who, in behalf of the Speaker, came to inquire whether the President would receive the Committee of Notification at the White House.

DEAD PUPPY IN COURT.

Dr. Mulvey Arrested for Trying to Pass Off a Bogus Dog.

Mr. George A. Rogers, of 67 West Eighty-fifth street, took a puppy pup to Dr. Mulvey, at Fifty-seventh street and Broadway, two weeks ago to have it house broken. She complained that calling at Mulvey's place on Wednesday she saw a small dog, a sulky little pup. She had Mulvey arrested.

In Yorkville Court the doctor said that he had the real dog in court. His son handed up a small paper parcel, which was a small dog, the body of Mrs. Rogers' dog. It had died.

Mrs. Rogers wept. The judge ordered the dog to be buried. The judge ordered Mulvey for using profane language.
